

Final Chance to Order Your 2012 California Employment Poster!

You must post a compliant Employment Poster in a conspicuous place in the workplace where all employees and applicants can see it. The poster also must include information about your workers' compensation benefits, payday schedule and emergency contacts. You may need to order several to ensure that your business, branches and satellite offices are displaying the poster according to the law. Failure to comply can result in severe penalties and fines by the state of California. If any of your company's workers are Spanish-speaking, you will need to order the Spanish version.

- 2012 CA & Federal Employment Notices Posters - Most California employers must post all 17 required state and federal employment notices. CalChamber has you covered with a two-poster set that includes the new 11"x17" NLRA poster as a separate posting.
- Effective January 31, 2012, most private-sector employers must post a new notice issued by the NLRB entitled, "Employee Rights Under the National Labor Relations Act." The NLRB changed the original posting date.

Substantial discount when you purchase through the Millbrae Chamber of Commerce.
